Gentlemen:

With respect to the threatened strike by the Writers Guild, the Basic Crafts Unions' agreements contain No Strike Clauses which require each Union "to order its members to perform their obligations to the Producer hereunder and to use its best efforts to get the employees to perform such obligations."

We expect each Union to comply with this No Strike obligation and order your members to work. It is necessary to send you this reminder because of some misinformation and rumors which have been circulated. Please advise the undersigned as to the actions taken by each Union in order to comply with the contractual obligations.

Sincerely,

J. Nicholas Counter III
